It’s Clean-Up Time

Elizabeth Appleton and Anne Wimmer, University of South Florida
May 2014
Created using pictures from Microsoft Clipart®
I like to play.

When I play, I use lots of toys.
My teacher will start counting down when play time is almost over.
When my teacher says, “It’s clean-up time”, I should start cleaning-up my toys.
I have to clean-up my toys to keep my friends, teacher, and toys safe.
When cleaning-up my toys:

I pick up a toy.

Bring it to the shelf.

Put it on the shelf or in the basket.

Then, I am all done!
Sometimes clean-up is hard.

If I need help, I can sign or say “help please”.
My teacher and friends are happy when we all clean-up.